

Kentucky New Hire Reporting Center

Kentucky Revised Statute 405.435 and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (PRWORA) of 1996, 42 U.S.C. 653a, requires all Kentucky employers to report all newly hired or rehired employees to the state directory within 20 days of the hire or rehire date. As of July 1, 1997, all employers and labor organizations in the State of Kentucky who are covered by the Kentucky Unemployment Insurance law are required to report new employees to the Registry.

What is new hire reporting?

All employers with business operations in the State of Kentucky are required to report all newly hired or rehired employees who live or work in Kentucky within twenty (20) days of the employees' first day on the job. State and federal laws require employers to report paid individuals regardless of whether or not the individuals are considered employees by federal tax code standards.

Why is new hire reporting important?

Employers play an essential role in helping Kentucky's children receive the support they need. Many families who do not receive financial support are often forced to depend on public assistance or live in poverty. By acting in accordance with the new hire reporting laws, you will help children receive the support they deserve. Furthermore, new hire reporting reduces fraudulent unemployment insurance and workers' compensation claims. Ultimately, new hire reporting is an easy, yet vital process, designed to help employers have a positive impact on their communities.

How do I report new hires and rehires?

There are a variety of simple and easy ways to report new hires and rehires including online reporting, electronic reporting, mail, or fax.
